QUEERING URBAN JUSTICE: QUEER OF COLOUR

FORMATIONS IN TORONTO, Edited by Jin Haritaworn, Ghaida Moussa, and Syrus Marcus Ware, with Rio Rodriguez, © 2018, ISBN 9781487522858, $28.95, Page Count: 240 pages

TABLE OF CONTENTS
Acknowledgments

Introduction: Queering Urban Justice
JIN HARITAWORN, GHaida MOUSSA, RÍO RODRÍGUEZ, AND SYRUS MARCUS WARE

Part One: Mapping Community
1. "Our Study Is Sabotage": Queering Urban Justice, from Toronto to New York
A ROUNDTABLE BY JIN HARITAWORN, WITH CHE GOSSSETT, RÍO RODRÍGUEZ, AND SYRUS MARCUS WARE

2. "We Had to Take Space, We Had to Create Space": Locating Queer of Colour Politics in 1980s Toronto
JOHN PAUL CATUNGAL

OMISOORE H. DRYDEN

4. Diasporic Intimacies: Queer Filipinos/as and Canadian Imaginaries
ROBERT DIAZ, MARISSA LARGO, AND FRITZ LUTHER PINO

5. On "Gaymousness" and "Calling Out": Affect, Violence, and Humanity in Queer of Colour Politics
MATTHEW CHIN
Part Two: Cartographies of Resistance
6. Calling a Shrimp a Shrimp: A Black Queer Intervention in Disability Studies
NWADIOGO EJI OGU AND SYRUS MARCUS WARE
7. Black Lives Matter Toronto Teach-In
JANAYA KHAN AND LEROI NEW BOLD
8. Black Picket Signs/White Picket Fences: Racism, Space, and Solidarity
TARA ATLURI
9. Becoming through Others: Western Queer Self-Fashioning and Solidarity with Queer Palestine
NAYROUZ ABU HATOUM AND GHAIDA MOUSSA
10. Compulsory Coming Out and Agentic Negotiations: Toronto QTPOC Narratives
AZAR MASOUMI
11. The Sacred Uprising: Indigenous Creative Activisms
AN INTERVIEW WITH REBEKA TABO BONDUNG BY SYRUS MARCUS WARE
Epilogue: Caressing in Small Spaces
JIN HARITA WORN
Contributors